Lifting Up. . . January

Dick Sales

recently retired as founder and former director of the TAP (Theology Among the People) program of the conference was in a car accident at the end of December, and broke several ribs. He is healing at home.

A little bit of information about Rev. Sales - retired missionary and active member of the UCC who currently lives in Birmingham, Alabama with his wife Nancy, spent much of his career strengthening the church through theological education for lay and ordained leaders in Botswana, Zambia, Zimbabwe, South Africa, and, upon his "first" retirement, throughout the Southeast Conference. Literally thousands of pastors and lay men and women have been equipped for ministries within the church and the world because of their involvement in programs such as TAP and TEE. TEE programs begun by Dr. Sales continue to thrive and to grow throughout Southern Africa, as well as here in the SEC.

Rev. Dr. Dick Sales,
